About Herrin House of Hope

Herrin House of Hope is an outreach services that is part of the Ministerial Alliance in Herrin, Illinois. They serve over 300 meals daily, as well as provide a thrift shop/clothing bank for anyone in the area who needs it. The facility is also used for GED classes and other meetings where space is needed at a low or low minimal cost. The location was set up for "restaurant dining". Customers entered, and were seated at tables. Volunteers were servers, presenting daily food options, providing drink and bussing service, making individuals who were there feel like they were in a restaurant rather than a food bank. Since Covid, Herrin House of Hope has switched gears by providing all these meals pre-packaged and for carryout.
